Statement of Relationship

Shepherd's Inn Hospitality House is owned & operated by Christian Life Crisis Invention, Inc. A 501(c) 3 non-profit. It's purpose is to provide emergency shelter for families and individuals in crisis. It also provides temporary lodging for other guests. No tenant-landlord relationship exists between guests of the shelter and no contractual relationship exists is implied between guests and Shepherd's Inn. Shepherd's Inn is not obliged in anyway whatsoever to provide housing, utilities or any service to any guest. Guest are allowed to stay solely at the discretion of the Directors, and may be asked to leave for any reason at any time.

The undersigned all agree that we/I are guests of Shepherd's Inn and that no tenant-landlord relationship exists. No rent or fees paid to Shepherd's Inn and the services of this ministry are free, provided solely at the mercy of the ministry.

In consideration of receiving a guest unit of the Ministry with no obligation to pay rent, we agree and understand that we are considered to be guests of Shepherd's Inn House and that we can be asked to leave at any time for any reason by the Directors. We agree that anytime a Director asks us or any guest to leave that we will leave immediately and that we are no longer guests. Upon request of the Directors (or staff) of the Ministry, we will immediately leave the premises of the Ministry and our failure to do so will constitute criminal trespass as that term is defined in Penal Code S30.05. Our refusal to vacate the premises will subject us to arrest.
